Lake Superior Rock

brings balance to busyness ... for helping meet the challenges of doing so much & having to constantly reorient

These rocks hold the colors of purity..... pink, gold, purple, red, amber, white, brown, grey, mauve.....
endless color.....
true color caught in form.
The rainbows off the lake,
the Northern Lights,
the Sun,
the blue sky,
the crystalline properties of snow,
the green-blue shimmering color of the water,
the bubbling white of the breakers on the beach.....
each stone holds all this in a dense form.
Solid so we can hold a wave.
Solid so we can bring the Sun into our hands and lay it on our chest to heal and to hold.....
to watch the waves endlessly beat upon these rocks..... rolling and tumbling them constantly.....
rounding and pushing them....
come into shore, no go out and tumble some more.....
come into shore, no go out and tumble some more.....
the lake and the rocks playing.....
the rocks tumbling and playing with their brothers.....
rubbing, honing, helping to round each other's edges.....
thus bringing out their true colors.
And as the water washes over them and the Sun shines on them, they shine and sparkle like the jewels they are.

This great Lake Superior and her stones offer us this powerful essence ~ this color in solid form ~ to bring harmony, clarity, and the inspiration of color and light into the challenges and turbulence of our world today.

It will be helpful to those who live in cities,
who face the pressures of constant motion in their lives,
of continually having to reorient as the tides of their lives wash over them.
This essence will help to round your edges,
bring out your inner light,
and push you gently to the shore to rest and glimmer in the warmth of the Sun..... especially helpful to office workers in large work situations, prisoners, animal shelters, homeless shelters, or other places where many unrelated people must live or work together.
A comfort essence in its highest form, it can be used to help bring our denser energies back to their full color and vibrancy.
Helps the heart to open,
to release stored radiance,
and open the ancient memory of perfection in form.
