

Sage growing at cliff's edge in the Black Canyon of the Gunnison River in Colorado Parts of the canyon walls are always in darkness, appearing black, because they are so steep that light cannot reach them.

Black Canyon Sage

helps one feel Divine protection while grounding one with an ability to connect to inner peace, guidance & clear, rational judgment in new or challenging situations

Both clearing and protective, the Black Canyon Sage essence offers calm, peaceful, clearheaded judgment and gentle assurance to feelings of confusion, anxiety or sudden fright.
Growing at the edge of one of the world's most dramatic canyons, with a sheer drop off plunging over one-half mile into its dark shadowy bottom, the silvery green sage grows gracefully and calmly, dangerously enjoying its canyon-edge view on this high desert mesa.
Sage is used in ceremonies throughout the world as a purifier of negative energies, to define energetic boundaries and to create protected space.

When you release the harm from a situation there is no longer anything to fear.
The Black Canyon Sage essence helps to clear the negative energy that can interfere with one's sacred space while positively influencing a person's ability to ground no matter what.

Anxiety and panic attacks are often energetically traced to an inability to protect one's own auric boundaries against world fears.
A sudden sense of panic, anxiety or rush of adrenaline unrelated to real trauma indicates both a lack of proper grounding and an invasion of negative thought forms due to an undefined or unprotected energy field.

Black Canyon Sage offers first protection... protection that comes from clearing away that which is interfering... protection that then holds one's space safe.
Feeling clear and secure, one can reconnect with one's body and then reconnect one's body with the Earth.

Opening and purifying the breath or the pranic channels, Black Canyon Sage essence offers the inner peace necessary to make clear, rational, accurate decisions and to act appropriately and quickly if needed.
Being frightened by frightening situations – whether real or imagined -- is no more helpful than worrying over one's troubles.
Black Canyon Sage
helps one to stand in one's power, to experience focused perspective, to have direct connection with Angelic protection and guidance.
From this place of assurance and clarity, one may be sure that all is well.
