

*Total Lunar Eclipse is a delight.
A Lunar Eclipse always means a Full Moon never entirely disappearing into darkness. With Total Eclipse, the Moon magically changes color as she moves into the darkest part of Earth's shadow.
The atmosphere around Earth bends sunlight into the shadow, and dust in Earth's atmosphere filters out most of the blue light, leaving the light remaining mostly deep red to orange. As the Moon moves into the depth of Earth's shadow, wah lah.... the totally eclipsed Full Moon glows orange to red.*

Lunar Eclipse

November 8, 2003

draws off the negativity & tension of the heart..... works to align the heart chakra with true & transcendent Love

The Moon is the Sun of the night..... a brightness to light our path through the dark.....
a rhythm to our bodies, our seasons, and the night skies as she waxes and wanes.
Tonight, Full, she has eclipsed..... as the Earth stands between her and the Sun.
It is such a beautiful clear cold Autumn night here in Michigan.
We watch her rise in her awesome power.
We stand with over one hundred children, parents, and grandparents, our hearts filled with joy, anticipation and wonder to be alive and witness together this breathtaking holy event as the planets line up and the feminine power encompasses us in the fertile womb of Heaven.

Much has happened in the Heavens as of late.
Mars has come to kiss the Earth and her New Moon in August..... and now Spring and Summer flowers begin their blooming in Fall, even to the frosts of November.
Fertility and possibility have transcended all.
We are moving into a time when the now non-physical reality will move to meet us and the gateways to the invisible and timeless will be open.
It is truly blessed to watch these events unfold.

We are gathered here tonight with children and their families on a lantern walk, an annual event to meet the darkness of Winter as it arrives here with the inner light of our souls.
The children all carry their handmade lanterns with candles burning.....
and we ours.....
as we sing
to the Earth, to the Sky, to Humanity
of our light:
"Each of us is one small light but together we shine bright ~ make way for Light."

The key is Love, but to stand in the power and intense purity of Love consistently has proven to be man and womankind's hardest task.
Yet our deepest desire is always only this.

Layer after layer of pain and trauma not only surround our hearts, but the very Earth herself.

We are suffocating in our inability to release all the violent and selfish actions of man, both current and historically.

Our hearts are surrounded by the scar tissue of these events and must be restored by the creative energy that brought us here in order that we may once again love in full innocence and power.

The Heavens support us here tonight and especially those areas of the planet that were able to witness this Blessing.

While seeing the Moon no longer bathed in Sunlight but dark with the shadow of the Earth,

I watched her draw the sorrow and pain from the Earth willingly and, somehow joyfully, absorbing the negativity into her womb.

Tears filled me at this.....

tears as come when one really releases the heart.

As the Earth gave way

and the Sun once again began to potentize her surface, a red glowing cradle appeared on her face.....

a cradle, she said,

to hold the new birthing of our hearts and to protect them in the loving embrace of our celestial parents.

Then, as the Moon became Full again,

there was a new imprint on her face,

quite visible from our home here in Michigan.

The shadows of the continents of the Earth were now to be seen in her etheric body.

Truly, this essence is a gift.

Truly, the hands of the Creator are many,

and they are coming together to support us with so much Love and Power at this important time in our evolutionary history.

This essence draws off the negativity and tension of the heart and works to align our heart chakra energies with the dynamic forces of our times.

True and transcendent love is the power of this essence and the key to ultimate transformation..... the pure and glorious energies of the Heart.

It is given to us
unchallenged and innocent of any past action or darkness.

Our hearts have been so broken, humbled, and wounded by the very process of living.....

it feels difficult and sometimes even impossible to feel the radiant and compassionate love we long for.

If the key is Love,
we have maybe lost our keys
and cannot get into the house.

Take this essence
that you may remember where you placed your keys, that you may restart the engine within and find your way home.

Open to this new day,
the dawning of our true hearts and the transcendence of our souls.

*In a Total Lunar Eclipse the entire Moon passes through Earth's umbral shadow, a region where Earth blocks all direct Sunlight from reaching the Moon.
This Total Lunar Eclipse in November, 2003 was visible across North and South America, Europe, and Africa.
As the Moon was Full, it rose at Sunset and was visible all night long.*
